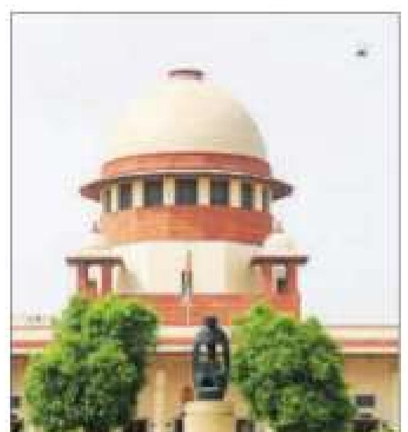
APEX COURT SEEKS 'ACCOUNTABILITY FOR WRONGDOING'

SC asks Manipur to act against illegal weapons

ANANTHAKRISHNAN G.
New Delhi, September 6



The CJI said investigation of crime, dealing with various aspects of human sufferings, recovery of arms, providing compensation — all these "have to take place across the board, irrespective of who the person genuinely in need is".

THE SUPREME COURT on Wednesday asked the Manipur government to act against illegal weapons, irrespective of the affiliation of those stocking or using them, and sought a status report on its August 7 direction to take stock of weapons looted or missing and formulate a plan to recover them.

CJI D Y Chandrachud, presiding over a three-judge bench that took up petitions filed in the wake of ethnic clashes in the state, told the counsel for various tribal communities who accused each other of looting weapons and using them in the conflict, "...we are not concerned with who looted. We are looking at it as we have said repeatedly that we are not concerned with the source of the wrongdoing."

He said: "We are concerned with the fact that there has to be accountability for wrongdoing. We are not concerned with the source of human suffering. Irrespective of the source of human suffering, everybody has to be dealt with on a uniform basis. "Even for disarmament, we are not concerned with if there are illegal arms on one side or the other. We are dealing with this objectively. The state has to take action irrespective of the source where the illegal arms are situated."

The CJI said investigation of crime, dealing with various aspects of human sufferings, recovery of arms, providing compensation — all these "have to take place across the board, irrespective of who the person genuinely in need is".

The bench, also comprising Justices J B Pardiwala and Manoj Misra, said in its order, "All the learned counsel...have fairly stated that it would be appropriate if a status report is placed before this court for its perusal by Manipur" in respect of the August 7 direction, "which the Solicitor General has agreed to do." The order said, "Having regard to the sensitivity of the issue, it has been agreed that presently the status report shall be made available only for perusal of this court."

In its August 7 order, the court had directed the state to "take stock of the number of arms missing or looted from armouries of the state and of these, the number of arms which have been recovered. Formulate and implement a plan to recover any missing arms".

On Wednesday, senior advocate Sanjay Hegde told the bench that while the August 7 order only refers to weapons in the state's control, "the real problem is...there were a lot of arms in militant camps which were jointly patrolled by the state and those militants. Now...militants have entered those camps, taken away the arms, and because it does not fall within the exclusive jurisdiction of the state, those arms are being paraded on Independence Day, adding to the violence."

Stumped by early faces, EC stares at gaps in poll spending rules

DAMINI NATH
New Delhi, September 6

FLAGGING THE RULING BJP's decision to declare 39 candidates for the Madhya Pradesh Assembly elections weeks before the announcement of the polls, the state Congress has appealed to the Election Commission (EC) to add the expenditure being made by these candidates in their election expenses.

The BJP on August 17 announced its candidates for 39 seats of the total 230 seats in Madhya Pradesh and 21 of 90 seats in Chhattisgarh three months before Assembly elections in the two states, naming the candidates only in seats which it had lost in the 2018 polls. The declaration of early candidates has exposed gaps in the EC's poll expenditure monitoring rules that stipulate accounting of candidates' spending from the date of their nomination and not even announcement of the polls, which is expected in these states in October.

When asked why the BJP candidates in MP were announced early, state BJP secretary Rajneesh Aggarwal had told The Indian Express that the decision was taken to stem infighting in the party unit as there were many ticket hopefuls.

During its current visit to Bhopal, the three-member Election Commission of India was on Monday urged by the Congress to include the expenditure incurred by the 39 BJP candidates before the official start of the election period in their account.

The Congress also alleged that Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan was campaigning in support of these candidates on government expenses and misusing the state machinery, which is not allowed when the Model Code of Conduct (MCC) is in force with the announcement of the election schedule.

On August 21, BRS in Telangana also announced candidates for 115 of the state's total 119 Assembly constituencies. Retaining all his ministers and senior MLAs as candidates, CM and BRS supremo K Chandrashekar Rao or KCR declared he will contest from two seats.

According to Section 77 (1) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, candidates are expected to keep an account of expenditure incurred on the elections from the "date on which he has been nominated" till the "date of declaration of the result".

The EC's former legal advisor S K Mendiratta said Section 77 (1) of the RP Act was amended in 1974 to provide that expenditure of a candidate is accounted from the date of filing nomination with the Returning Office. This, he said, was done in the context of the election petition against Indira Gandhi that was then pending before the Allahabad High Court.

"Prior to that, the expenditure was counted from the date the candidate declared himself as a candidate, but that was a vague provision as no definite date was prescribed in law," Mendiratta said.

Army scouts for 170 all-terrain armoured recovery vehicles

AMRITA NAYAK DUTTA
New Delhi, September 6

THE ARMY IS seeking to procure 170 Armoured Recovery Vehicles on tracked platforms for both deserts and plains along the country's western borders as well as in high-altitude and mountainous terrains at eastern Ladakh or north Sikkim.

At present, the Army operates the BEML-built vehicles which are based on the Russian-made T-72 tank hulls. During operations under hostile conditions, these vehicles help the repair and recovery capabilities of its armoured fighting vehicles.

As per officials, Armoured Recovery Vehicles are the ones which pave the way for the progress of all armoured operations, hence are of high tactical and logistical importance.

"With induction of higher mobility and heavier platforms like T-90s and Arjun tanks, it is vital that recovery vehicles with matching mobility and repair capabilities are inducted for all mechanised formations," an official said.

Slapping of student: SC seeks report on probe, issues notice

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, September 6

THE SUPREME COURT Wednesday asked the Muzaffarnagar Police for a status report on the investigation into the slapping of a seven-year-old boy by fellow students on the instructions of their teacher. The teacher, Tripta Tyagi (60), had referred to the boy's faith and spoken pejoratively about "Mohammedan children" as she asked other students to beat the boy "hard". The boy's family said he was beaten up for a mistake in multiplication tables.

Issuing notice to the Uttar Pradesh government on a plea filed by activist Tushar Gandhi, a bench of Justices A S Oka and Pankaj Mithal asked the Muzaffarnagar Superintendent of Police to inform it about the steps taken for the security of the boy and his family. The plea also seeks guidelines regarding preventive and remedial measures within the school system to prevent violence against children, including those belonging to religious minorities.

The court has sought the reply by September 25.

A video of the student being slapped had been shared widely on social media late last month, leading to calls for action against the teacher and the school.

APEX COURT SEEKS 'ACCOUNTABILITY FOR WRONGDOING'

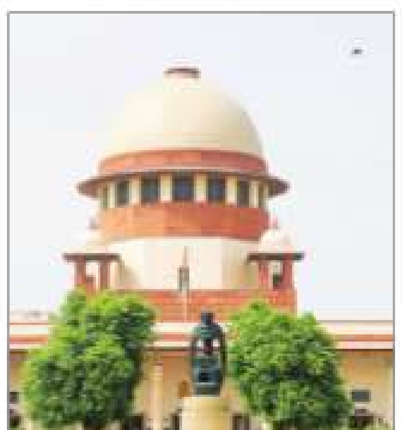
SC asks Manipur to act against illegal weapons

ANANTHAKRISHNAN G.
New Delhi, September 6

THE SUPREME COURT on Wednesday asked the Manipur government to act against illegal weapons, irrespective of the affiliation of those stocking or using them, and sought a status report on its August 7 direction to take stock of weapons looted or missing and formulate a plan to recover them.

CJI D Y Chandrachud, presiding over a three-judge bench that took up petitions filed in the wake of ethnic clashes in the state, told the counsel for various tribal communities who accused each other of looting weapons and using them in the conflict, "...we are not concerned with who looted. We are looking at it as we have said repeatedly that we are not concerned with the source of the wrongdoing."

He said: "We are concerned with the fact that there has to be accountability for wrongdoing. We are not concerned with the source of human suffering. Irrespective of the source of human suffering, everybody has to be dealt with on a uniform basis. "Even for disarmament, we are not concerned with if there are illegal arms on one side or the other. We are dealing with this objectively. The state has to take action irrespective of the source where the illegal arms are situated."



The CJI said investigation of crime, dealing with various aspects of human sufferings, recovery of arms, providing compensation — all these "have to take place across the board, irrespective of who the person genuinely in need is".

The CJI said investigation of crime, dealing with various aspects of human sufferings, recovery of arms, providing compensation — all these "have to take place across the board, irrespective of who the person genuinely in need is".

The bench, also comprising Justices J B Pardiwala and Manoj Misra, said in its order, "All the learned counsel...have fairly stated that it would be appropriate if a status report is placed before this court for its perusal by Manipur" in respect of the August 7 direction, "which the Solicitor General has agreed to do." The order said, "Having regard to the sensitivity of the issue, it has been agreed that presently the status report shall be made available only for perusal of this court."

In its August 7 order, the court had directed the state to "take stock of the number of arms missing or looted from armouries of the state and of these, the number of arms which have been recovered. Formulate and implement a plan to recover any missing arms".

On Wednesday, senior advocate Sanjay Hegde told the bench that while the August 7 order only refers to weapons in the state's control, "the real problem is...there were a lot of arms in militant camps which were jointly patrolled by the state and those militants. Now...militants have entered those camps, taken away the arms, and because it does not fall within the exclusive jurisdiction of the state, those arms are being paraded on Independence Day, adding to the violence."

Stumped by early faces, EC stares at gaps in poll spending rules

DAMINI NATH
New Delhi, September 6

FLAGGING THE RULING BJP's decision to declare 39 candidates for the Madhya Pradesh Assembly elections weeks before the announcement of the polls, the state Congress has appealed to the Election Commission (EC) to add the expenditure being made by these candidates in their election expenses.

The BJP on August 17 announced its candidates for 39 seats of the total 230 seats in Madhya Pradesh and 21 of 90 seats in Chhattisgarh three months before Assembly elections in the two states, naming the candidates only in seats which it had lost in the 2018 polls. The declaration of early candidates has exposed gaps in the EC's poll expenditure monitoring rules that stipulate accounting of candidates' spending from the date of their nomination and not even announcement of the polls, which is expected in these states in October.

When asked why the BJP candidates in MP were announced early, state BJP secretary Rajneesh Aggarwal had told The Indian Express that the decision was taken to stem infighting in the party unit as there were many ticket hopefuls.

During its current visit to Bhopal, the three-member Election Commission of India was on Monday urged by the Congress to include the expenditure incurred by the 39 BJP candidates before the official start of the election period in their account.

The Congress also alleged that Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan was campaigning in support of these candidates on government expenses and misusing the state machinery, which is not allowed when the Model Code of Conduct (MCC) is in force with the announcement of the election schedule.

On August 21, BRS in Telangana also announced candidates for 115 of the state's total 119 Assembly constituencies. Retaining all his ministers and senior MLAs as candidates, CM and BRS supremo K Chadrashekar Rao or KCR declared he will contest from two seats.

According to Section 77 (1) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, candidates are expected to keep an account of expenditure incurred on the elections from the "date on which he has been nominated" till the "date of declaration of the result".

The EC's former legal advisor S K Mendiratta said Section 77 (1) of the RP Act was amended in 1974 to provide that expenditure of a candidate is accounted from the date of filing nomination with the Returning Officer. This, he said, was done in the context of the election petition against Indira Gandhi that was then pending before the Allahabad High Court.

"Prior to that, the expenditure was counted from the date the candidate declared himself as a candidate, but that was a vague provision as no definite date was prescribed in law," Mendiratta said.

Army scouts for 170 all-terrain armoured recovery vehicles

AMRITA NAYAK DUTTA
New Delhi, September 6

THE ARMY IS seeking to procure 170 Armoured Recovery Vehicles on tracked platforms for both deserts and plains along the country's western borders as well as in high-altitude and mountainous terrains at eastern Ladakh or north Sikkim.

At present, the Army operates the BEML-built vehicles which are based on the Russian-made T-72 tank hulls. During operations under hostile conditions, these vehicles help the repair and recovery capabilities of its armoured fighting vehicles.

As per officials, Armoured Recovery Vehicles are the ones which pave the way for the progress of all armoured operations, hence are of high tactical and logistical importance.

"With induction of higher mobility and heavier platforms like T-90s and Arjun tanks, it is vital that recovery vehicles with matching mobility and repair capabilities are inducted for all mechanised formations," an official said.

Slapping of student: SC seeks report on probe, issues notice

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, September 6

THE SUPREME COURT Wednesday asked the Muzaffarnagar Police for a status report on the investigation into the slapping of a seven-year-old boy by fellow students on the instructions of their teacher. The teacher, Tripta Tyagi (60), had referred to the boy's faith and spoken pejoratively about "Mohammedan children" as she asked other students to beat the boy "hard". The boy's family said he was beaten up for a mistake in multiplication tables.

Issuing notice to the Uttar Pradesh government on a plea filed by activist Tushar Gandhi, a bench of Justices A S Oka and Pankaj Mithal asked the Muzaffarnagar Superintendent of Police to inform it about the steps taken for the security of the boy and his family. The plea also seeks guidelines regarding preventive and remedial measures within the school system to prevent violence against children, including those belonging to religious minorities.

The court has sought the reply by September 25.

A video of the student being slapped had been shared widely on social media late last month, leading to calls for action against the teacher and the school.

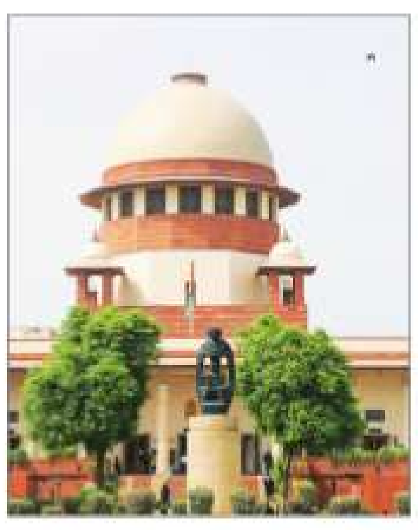
APEX COURT SEEKS 'ACCOUNTABILITY FOR WRONGDOING'

SC asks Manipur to act against illegal weapons

ANANTHAKRISHNAN G.
New Delhi, September 6



The CJI said investigation of crime, dealing with various aspects of human sufferings, recovery of arms, providing compensation — all these "have to take place across the board, irrespective of who the person genuinely in need is".

THE SUPREME COURT on Wednesday asked the Manipur government to act against illegal weapons, irrespective of the affiliation of those stocking or using them, and sought a status report on its August 7 direction to take stock of weapons looted or missing and formulate a plan to recover them.

CJI D Y Chandrachud, presiding over a three-judge bench that took up petitions filed in the wake of ethnic clashes in the state, told the counsel for various tribal communities who accused each other of looting weapons and using them in the conflict, "...we are not concerned with who looted. We are looking at it as we have said repeatedly that we are not concerned with the source of the wrongdoing."

He said: "We are concerned with the fact that there has to be accountability for wrongdoing. We are not concerned with the source of human suffering. Irrespective of the source of human suffering, everybody has to be dealt with on a uniform basis. "Even for disarmament, we are not concerned with if there are illegal arms on one side or the other. We are dealing with this objectively. The state has to take action irrespective of the source where the illegal arms are situated."

The CJI said investigation of crime, dealing with various aspects of human sufferings, recovery of arms, providing compensation — all these "have to take place across the board, irrespective of who the person genuinely in need is".

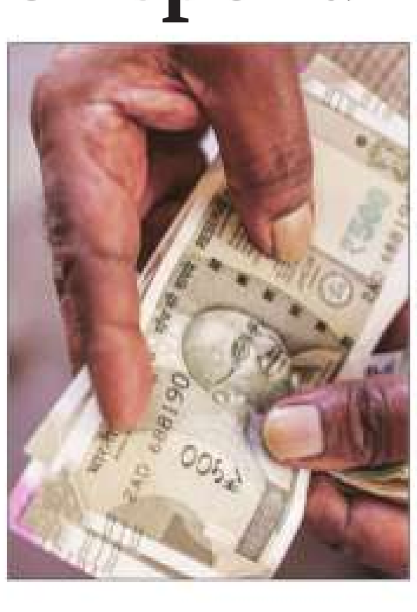
The bench, also comprising Justices J B Pardiwala and Manoj Misra, said in its order, "All the learned counsel...have fairly stated that it would be appropriate if a status report is placed before this court for its perusal by Manipur" in respect of the August 7 direction, "which the Solicitor General has agreed to do." The order said, "Having regard to the sensitivity of the issue, it has been agreed that presently the status report shall be made available only for perusal of this court."

In its August 7 order, the court had directed the state to "take stock of the number of arms missing or looted from armouries of the state and of these, the number of arms which have been recovered. Formulate and implement a plan to recover any missing arms".

On Wednesday, senior advocate Sanjay Hegde told the bench that while the August 7 order only refers to weapons in the state's control, "the real problem is...there were a lot of arms in militant camps which were jointly patrolled by the state and those militants. Now...militants have entered those camps, taken away the arms, and because it does not fall within the exclusive jurisdiction of the state, those arms are being paraded on Independence Day, adding to the violence."

Stumped by early faces, EC stares at gaps in poll spending rules

DAMINI NATH
New Delhi, September 6



FLAGGING THE RULING BJP's decision to declare 39 candidates for the Madhya Pradesh Assembly elections weeks before the announcement of the polls, the state Congress has appealed to the Election Commission (EC) to add the expenditure being made by these candidates in their election expenses.

The BJP on August 17 announced its candidates for 39 seats in the total 230 seats in Madhya Pradesh and 21 of 90 seats in Chhattisgarh three months before Assembly elections in the two states, naming the candidates only in seats which it had lost in the 2018 polls. The declaration of early candidates has exposed gaps in the EC's poll expenditure monitoring rules that stipulate accounting of candidates' spending from the date of their nomination and not even announcement of the polls, which is expected in these states in October.

When asked why the BJP candidates in MP were announced early, state BJP secretary Rajneesh Agarwal had told The Indian Express that the decision was taken to stem infighting in the party unit as there were many ticket hopefuls.

During its current visit to Bhopal, the three-member Election Commission of India was on Monday urged by the Congress to include the expenditure incurred by the 39 BJP candidates before the official start of the election period in their account.

The Congress also alleged that Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan was campaigning in support of these candidates on government expenses and misusing the state machinery, which is not allowed when the Model Code of Conduct (MCC) is in force with the announcement of the election schedule.

On August 21, BRS in Telangana also announced candidates for 115 of the state's total 119 Assembly constituencies. Retaining all his ministers and senior MLAs as candidates, CM and BRS supremo K Chandrashekar Rao or KCR declared he will contest from two seats.

According to Section 77 (1) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, candidates are expected to keep an account of expenditure incurred on the elections from the "date on which he has been nominated" till the "date of declaration of the result".

The EC's former legal advisor S K Mendiratta said Section 77 (1) of the RP Act was amended in 1974 to provide that expenditure of a candidate is accounted from the date of filing nomination with the Returning Officer. This, he said, was done in the context of the election petition against Indira Gandhi that was then pending before the Allahabad High Court.

"Prior to that, the expenditure was counted from the date the candidate declared himself as a candidate, but that was a vague provision as no definite date was prescribed in law," Mendiratta said.

Army scouts for 170 all-terrain armoured recovery vehicles

AMRITA NAYAK DUTTA
New Delhi, September 6

THE ARMY IS seeking to procure 170 Armoured Recovery Vehicles on tracked platforms for both deserts and plains along the country's western borders as well as in high-altitude and mountainous terrains at eastern Ladakh or north Sikkim.

At present, the Army operates the BEML-built vehicles which are based on the Russian-made T-72 tank hulls. During operations under hostile conditions, these vehicles help the repair and recovery capabilities of its armoured fighting vehicles.

As per officials, Armoured Recovery Vehicles are the ones which pave the way for the progress of all armoured operations, hence are of high tactical and logistical importance.

"With induction of higher mobility and heavier platforms like T-90s and Arjun tanks, it is vital that recovery vehicles with matching mobility and repair capabilities are inducted for all mechanised formations," an official said.

Slapping of student: SC seeks report on probe, issues notice

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, September 6

THE SUPREME COURT Wednesday asked the Muzaffarnagar Police for a status report on the investigation into the slapping of a seven-year-old boy by fellow students on the instructions of their teacher. The teacher, Tripta Tyagi (60), had referred to the boy's faith and spoken pejoratively about "Mohammedan children" as she asked other students to beat the boy "hard". The boy's family said he was beaten up for a mistake in multiplication tables.

Issuing notice to the Uttar Pradesh government on a plea filed by activist Tushar Gandhi, a bench of Justices A S Oka and Pankaj Mithal asked the Muzaffarnagar Superintendent of Police to inform it about the steps taken for the security of the boy and his family. The plea also seeks guidelines regarding preventive and remedial measures within the school system to prevent violence against children, including those belonging to religious minorities.

The court has sought the reply by September 25.

A video of the student being slapped had been shared widely on social media late last month, leading to calls for action against the teacher and the school.
